AAPCSW

mind&milieu

from the consulting room to the community and back

March 23–26, 2017

Baltimore (Inner Harbor), Maryland

This conference will highlight the inextricable link between mind and milieu and the complex relationships between our inner and outer worlds. These perspectives are at the core of social work's emphasis on "person in environment" and the importance of relationship. We invite you to Baltimore, the birthplace of American psychoanalysis and home to many prominent thinkers who embraced the significance of the worlds within and beyond the consulting room. Join us as we explore and expand our contemporary understanding of the mind/milieu dynamic.

Guidelines for Papers, Panels, Workshops, and Essays

The Conference Committee invites submissions related to the theme. Papers may reflect but are not limited to the following:

- The experience of diversity/otherness issues and their clinical implications, including the intersections of race, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, ability, religion, and age
- Psychoanalytic interventions in the community
- Group, family, or couples therapy
- The impact of theory
- Clinical processes throughout the life span

Examples of other possible topics:

- Historical perspectives and debates in psychoanalysis
- Trauma and its evolving theories
- Internal and external psychic turmoil as it emerges in the therapeutic process
- Science and technology in the clinical process
- Applied psychoanalysis as it illuminates today's politics and economics.

Please include
